

NOW HIRING: Development Director

Job Description: Full-time Development Director

Location: Denver, Colorado

Application Deadline: Position will be open until filled

Target start Date: Late March/early April 2017

Summary

New Era Colorado Foundation and New Era Colorado Action Fund are seeking a full-time Development Director to lead and grow our annual fundraising and donor base. The Development Director will develop and implement our annual fundraising plan, manage foundation funding and donor relationships, and oversee the development department's operations, including managing New Era's Development Manager. This position is a member of New Era's senior leadership team. We are looking for a strong writer and strategic thinker who is passionate about social justice and young people's ability to create change.

New Era's revenue development relies on a strong combination of grant-writing and foundation support, individual donors, a robust monthly membership program, business revenue, and small-dollar donations—raised through numerous events throughout the year, as well as a few mailers and online fundraising campaigns. Our ideal candidate is excited to dig in to raise the resources we need to keep fighting and growing our impact, and has some previous fundraising experience. This position requires a determination to hit goals, resourcefulness, and strong management of multiple projects with significant attention to detail.

About New Era Colorado

New Era Colorado is an innovative nonprofit organization that works to reinvent politics for young people, mobilizing and empowering a new generation to participate in our democracy to make Colorado a better place for everyone. We have three core program areas: civic engagement, advocacy, and leadership development. We register and turn out thousands of young voters every year, work on issues like election access, economic justice, abortion rights and climate change at the state and local level, and train hundreds of young leaders to create change. Since our founding, we've registered more than 150,000 young voters, passed policies like online voter registration, and given out probably more than 60,000+ buttons that say "Vote, F*cker" on them (good, right?). And along the way, we got more than a million views on our Campaign for Local Power video, another million on our This Is Why We Vote video (which was featured on Upworthy), we got named "Campaign of the Year" by New Organizing Institute in 2013, and our volunteers and interns taught us how to make Where's Waldo costumes on the cheap for voter registration. Professional Development + New Era's team

This position is a leadership role on New Era's senior team, and offers extensive opportunities for growth, advanced management experience, innovation and professional development on an incredibly supportive team. Professional development opportunities include advanced trainings, an annual professional development budget, and learn-by-doing skills building. Our team is incredibly dedicated to creating social change, and takes the work very seriously—but not ourselves. We'll never miss an opportunity to get a zoomed-in screenshot of you making a weird face in a group photo. Very few of us were cool in high school. We deeply believe that young people can create and accelerate social change. We want you, yes, you, to apply!
